

Table 1: The AAGI palette colours.

aagibrightgreen	aagiteal	aagibblue	aagigreen
aagiyellow	aagiorange	aagiblack	aagigrey

Example Short Report

Optional subtitle here

Prepared for: Client 1, Client 2 (Organisation)

Prepared by: Author 1, Author 2 (Curtin University, AAGI-CU)

Correspondence email: your.email@example.edu.au

Last updated: June 21, 2026

Table of contents

Section	1
This is a subsection heading	1
Table example using {flextable}	2
This is a subsubsection heading	2
Next Section	2

“

Section

This template is designed for smaller (“one-page”) AAGI reports. The AAGI logo and partners footer appear only on this first page.

You can colour text/tables/etc using the various AAGI palette colours. Use AAGI Teal, or AAGI Bright Green. Table 1 shows the standard palette colours available for use.

This is a subsection heading

This is an example of a reference (Person, 2024).

Example Note Use `\begin{note} ... \end{note}` to create coloured notes like this.

Example R code using {AAGIThemes}.

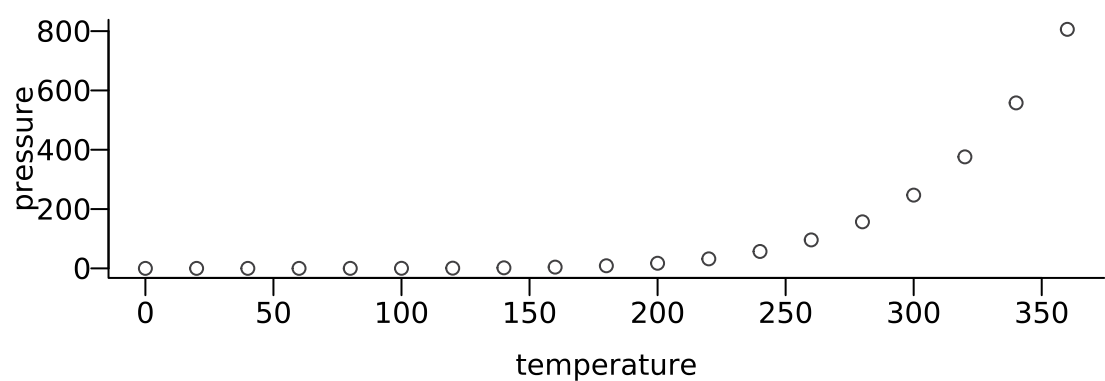

Figure 1: Here is a plot.

Table example using {flextable}

Table 2: An example table using {flextable}.

Ozone	Solar.R	Wind	Temp	Month	Day
41	190	7.4	67	5	1
36	118	8.0	72	5	2
12	149	12.6	74	5	3
18	313	11.5	62	5	4
		14.3	56	5	5
28		14.9	66	5	6

This is a subsubsection heading

Add body text here.

Next Section

Add as many sections as needed (Person, 2024).

Person, M. (2024) My article title goes here. My Journal, 13, pp. 12–34.